

MUSIC? YES, BY ALL MEANS!

Unfolding the Talents of Children Inclusively.

A Workshop for teachers and teacher educators by Dr. Heike Wedel and Hagen Barz

Dr. Heike Wedel and Mr. Hagen Barz teach music in the Linne-School, Berlin Germany. They will demonstrate how they use music to engage pupils. They will share various instruments they use including common everyday objects. The workshop will introduce participants to the approach to music for all students, selecting and organising music pieces and performances, and the value of these experiences for students.

The workshop will be of interest to teachers working with students in inclusive schools and with students with disabilities, and teacher educators who are interested in enabling teachers develop skills and perspectives for inclusive classrooms.

Seats available on first-cum first served basis (30 Seats)
