

Internships at Criminal Justice Fellowship at Centre for Criminology and Justice at various locations in India

1. Introduction

The criminal justice fellowship program started in the April 2015 and is offered for a period of two years. There are 15 fellows working in different states in India i.e. Delhi, Karantaka, Kerala, Maharashtra, Odisha, Tamil Nadu, Uttarakhand and Uttar Pradesh. They are working on different issues within the broad theme of criminal justice i.e. Mob Justice, Legal Aid in Prison, NT-DNT, Rehabilitation of women and children in prostitution, Working with children in Observation home, custodial deaths, sexual violence, transgender community and issues of women workers in unorganised sector. Another 16 fellows will join from June this year, spread across India.

Objective

The Criminal Justice Fellowship is a field intervention based fellowship offered to the alumni of the School of Law and the School of Social Work, TISS. The core idea behind this initiative has been to encourage new areas of work, especially where there is a dearth of trained human service professionals, and to demonstrate the scope and potential of working on critical issues.

Themes under the broad umbrella of Criminology and Justice

1. Prison populations – Under-Trial prisoner's convicts children of prisoners, women, youth and men.
2. Women and children in custody – women rescue from prostitution, destitute women, and children of women in prostitution, juvenile in conflict with law.
3. Homelessness and beggary laws.
4. NT-DNT.
5. Police station – work with vulnerable populations.
6. Victims of crime and their families.
7. Legal aid and access to justice for marginalized population.
8. Rehabilitation of persons coming out of custody.
9. Prevention of crime community based work.

10. Rural crime and justice.
11. Violence against women and children.
12. Compensation.
13. Advocacy through Digital and Print Media- through publication The Sabha

General Guidelines

- The internship is unpaid and the intern is supposed to manage his/her food, accommodation and traveling expenses.
- On completion of internship, the intern will receive a certificate for the same from TISS.
- The minimum duration of engagement is one month.

Please click on the internship form to apply --> Internship Form