

Part-time positions – Research Assistants

Tata Institute of Social Sciences invites applications for a short term research study titled “Gender sensitive counseling interventions in family courts.” The study is supported by Maharashtra State Women’s Commission. The broad aim of the study is to understand gendered dimensions of marital concerns and stressors experienced by litigants of family courts in Maharashtra and of counseling interventions provided for the same by marriage counselors.

Duration of the Study: 4 months

Starting Date: February 15, 2018

No of positions: 3

We are therefore hiring three part time- research assistants (3 full days a week)

Qualification:

Masters Degree in Psychology (preferably clinical and counseling) from a recognized university. Candidates with prior research experience will be preferred.

Job responsibilities:

The primary tasks of the research assistant will be as follows -

- Data collection
- Data entry
- Data analysis
- Help in report writing and dissemination of research findings
- The research assistant may be required to travel to various sites in Maharashtra for data collection.

Remuneration: Rs. 10000/- per month

Kindly send in your applications and your Resume` via email to the following faculty members by 11thFebruary, 2018

Aparna Joshi – aparna.joshi@tiss.edu

Amrita Joshi – amrita.joshi@tiss.edu

Short-listed candidates will be called in for interviews.