

Tata Institute of Social Sciences

The Tata Institute of Social Sciences (TISS) was established in 1936, as Sir Dorabji Tata Graduate School of Social Work. In 1944 it was renamed as TISS. In 1964, it was accorded the status of Deemed University. It is funded by University Grants Commission since then. Since its inception in 1936, TISS never limited itself to the mandate of a conventional university, rather worked for the promotion of sustainable, equitable and participatory development, social welfare and justice. TISS. Through its 9 schools and 3 independent centres at the Mumbai Campus, along with vibrant campuses in Tuljapur (M.S.), Guwahti and Hyderabad offers 39 highly competitive, socially relevant M.A/M.Sc./M.P.H. Programmes in inter and trans-disciplinary areas of social work, health, management, development, habitat and climate sciences. The Institute has over 160 full-time highly accomplished faculty members involved in teaching, research, policy influencing and institution building activities. In 2016 TISS was reaccredited by NAAC and was awarded Grade “A” with a score of 3.89 out of 4.00 which was the second highest in the country.

Tata Institute of Social Sciences Tuljapur Campus

The Rural Campus was established following a review undertaken by the Institute in its golden jubilee year, 1987. The campus was established with the goals of promoting initiatives for sustainable, eco-friendly and equitable socio-economic development of rural communities, with a focus on gender and social justice. Through its programmes, TISS, Tuljapur seeks to contribute to the revival of the rural economy, society and polity by promoting alternatives in development. In order to achieve this, TISS, Tuljapur evolved a four dimensional program comprising teaching, training, field action and research and documentation. Presently, TISS-Tuljapur is offering Bachelor’s Degree in Social Work (BASW-RD), BASS-MA (Five Year Integrated), and Master’s Degree in Social Work with specialization in Rural Development (MA-RD), MA-DPP, MA-SLNG, MA-SIE, and M.Phil & Ph.D. and PG-WASH. More than 500 students, largely hailing from rural community, have successfully graduated from TISS-Tuljapur and are working with many grass root organization across

NATIONAL CONFERENCE ON RECENT TRENDS IN MATHEMATICS-2016 (NCRTM)

(15-16 JULY 2016)

Sponsored by

National Board of Higher Mathematics (NBHM)

SCHOOL OF RURAL DEVELOPMENT
TATA INSTITUTE OF SOCIAL SCIENCES TULJAPUR
CAMPUS TULJAPUR

Theme of the Conference

The main goal of this conference is to facilitate the researchers stay abreast with recent developments in various disciplines of Mathematics and related fields and to provide new directions through several plenary and invited talks by experts covering problems of current interested and important applications. The scientific program of the conference will consist of plenary and invited lectures, session talks and the paper presentations.

Topics of the conference include (but not limited):

Algebra
Analysis
Fluid Mechanics
Fuzzy Sets
Graph Theory
Operation Research
Computational Mathematics
Differential Equations
Mathematical Biology
Statistics and its Applications
Engineering Application
Mathematical Physics
Relativity
Mathematical Modelling
Numerical Analysis
Fractional Differential Equations
Approximation Theory

Abstract and Paper Submission:

The organizing committee invites original research articles for the presentation in the conference.

Authors willing to present the paper are requested to send the abstract of the paper (With Times New Roman front size 12pt and not exceeding 300 words) by mail: gabirajdar11@gmail.com. After receiving the acceptance the author will have to submit the full length paper.

PUBLICATION

All the submitted paper will be reviewed by scientific committee of the conference and the proceeding with all accepted papers will be released in CD format at the inaugural session of the conference. Furthermore, selected paper will be published in the Scopus indexed journal.

Deadlines:

Abstract Submission : June 25, 2016

Acceptance : June 30, 2016

Full Paper Submission : July 03, 2016

Registration Fee

Academics/Institute Delegates : Rs 1500
